

Experience Cultural Awareness Training

in a contemporary setting supporting you and your workplace

Want help to Close the Gap?

We all have the responsibility to care for ourselves and others. Australia's history has shaped the way we interact with others around us, and we all have the responsibility to aim for positive relationships that are healthy in mind, and wealthy in spirit. Closing the Gap has never been more important in Australia, as our efforts to acknowledge, embrace and understand our Original Sovereignty and cultural heritage, demonstrates our commitment to the rest of the world.

This cultural awareness training is delivered by Original Custodians that are connected to culture, Country and community, that empowers everyone in a culturally safe learning environment.

Why participate in this training?

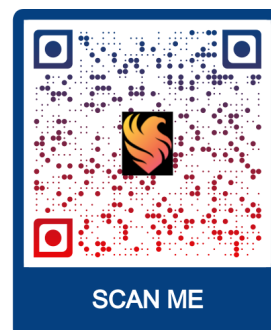

Our training empowers you with accurate cultural information that will enable you to feel part of and create a culturally safe space for those you come in contact with.

Aboriginal Australian history and culture is everyone's business...

- We are 100% owned and developed by Aboriginal people, tailoring cultural strategies around your service
- We are an Aboriginal Consultancy inspiring cultural growth, cultural safety and resilience
- We offer Aboriginal Mentorship and Workplace Cultural Supervision, Aboriginal Children Out of Home Care strategies and over-all workplace cultural awareness training and support

All workplaces

All workplaces have an obligation to support all staff with cultural awareness training that equips them with the confidence to feel safe to consult and engage with Aboriginal people effectively and meaningfully.
